v.

SPID 100004294 (M.D.)

Attorney Lien Dispute

Case No. 00623

EXPLANATION AND ORDER

DAVID R. STRAWBRIDGE
UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

June 12, 2023

Before the Court is a Notice of Attorney's Lien ("Lien") and a Petition to Establish Attorney's Lien seeking attorney's fees and costs from any Monetary Claim to be paid to SPID SPID 100004294 (M.D.) (the "SCM"), who was issued a Notice of Monetary Award Claim Determination on January 30, 2023. The lien was filed in May 2017 by John D. Giddens, P.A. ("Giddens"). The SCM is currently represented by Shenaq PC ("Shenaq") as associated counsel of Peckham Martin, PLLC ("Peckham") and Wayne Ferrell, Jr. ("Ferrell").

The District Court referred all Petitions for individual attorney's liens to this Magistrate Judge. (Doc. No. 7746.) Rules Governing Attorneys' Liens ("Rules") were adopted on March 6, 2018 and amended on October 3, 2018. (Doc. Nos. 9760 and 10283.) Pursuant to Rule 12, Giddens and Shenaq (the “Parties”) were advised of their right to consent to have the Magistrate Judge issue a final Order to resolve this dispute. The Parties have so consented. Accordingly, this Explanation and Order will serve as the final decision of the Court concerning this attorney lien dispute.<sup>1</sup>

On April 25 and 27, 2023, the Parties submitted a Withdrawal of Attorney’s Lien Dispute form pursuant to Rule 24 (the “Withdrawal”). The Withdrawal sets out an agreement that has been reached as to the portion of the SCM’s Monetary Award that each firm would receive as its fee from funds currently available for distribution, as well as how to allocate any portion of the 5% holdback that may be released in the future. The agreement was negotiated by parties that presumably are informed and concerned about their own interest.

Upon review of the Withdrawal and the contingency fee agreements, and in consideration of the Presumptive Fee Cap (Doc. No. 9863), we conclude that the fee to be paid to the firms is reasonable, does not exceed the percentage for which the SCM contracted, and does not exceed the percentage allowed under the 22% Presumptive Fee Cap.<sup>2</sup> In addition, the costs <sup>1</sup> This decision does not concern the propriety of the Monetary Award to the SCM, which has already been authorized. Rather, it addresses only the allocation of the portion of the SCM’s Monetary Award that was set aside by the Claims Administrator for fees and costs of the SCM’s individually-retained counsel. It is the SCM’s discharge of an attorney he retained to represent him in this matter, and the filing of an attorney’s lien by prior counsel, that has created the need for this judicial determination of the appropriate fee.

<sup>2</sup> Pursuant to the Court’s Order Regarding Withholdings for Common Benefit Fund (Doc. No. 10104), 5% of the Award is currently being held in the Attorney’s Fees Qualified Settlement Fund, where it must remain until further order of the Court. The Claims Administrator will ensure that if any portion of those funds are later released they will be paid pursuant to the agreed terms in the Withdrawal.

sought by the firms are reasonable and recoverable under the fee agreements. Accordingly, we conclude that the Withdrawal will be granted and that the Claims Administrator is directed to distribute the attorneys' fees and costs to the Parties as set forth in the Withdrawal.<sup>3</sup>

AND NOW, this 12th day of June, 2023, it is ORDERED that:

1. The Withdrawal of the Lien Dispute is GRANTED; and
2. The Claims Administrator is ORDERED to distribute the withheld funds in accordance with this decision, the provisions of the Settlement Agreement, and all Court Orders regarding implementation.

<sup>3</sup> We closely reviewed the costs asserted by Shenaq on behalf of co-counsel from examinations performed prior to the effective date of the Settlement. These costs apparently were advanced by a third party. We are satisfied that the amounts listed here as the expenditures for those examinations are not inflated.
